Legislative Decree n. 58/1998

Article 135 decies (Conflict of interest of the representative and substitutes)

1. Conferring proxy upon a representative in conflict of interest is permitted provided that the representative informs the shareholder in writing of the circumstances giving rise to such conflict of interest and provided specific voting instructions are provided for each resolution in which the representative is expected to vote on behalf of the shareholder. The representative shall have the onus of proof regarding disclosure to the shareholder of the circumstances giving rise to the conflict of interest. Article 1711, second subsection of the Italian Civil Code does not apply.
2. In any event, for the purposes of this article, conflict of interest exists where the representative or substitute:
 - a) has sole or joint control of the company, or is controlled or is subject to joint control by that company;
 - b) is associated with the company or exercises significant influence over that company or the latter exercises significant influence over the representative;
 - c) is a member of the board of directors or control body of the company or of the persons indicated in paragraphs a) and b);
 - d) is an employee or auditor of the company or of the persons indicated in paragraph a);
 - e) is the spouse, close relative or is related by up to four times removed of the persons indicated in paragraphs a) to c);
 - f) is bound to the company or to persons indicated in paragraphs a), b), c) and e) by independent or employee relations or other relations of a financial nature that compromise independence.
3. Replacement of the representative by a substitute in conflict of interest is permitted only if the substitute is indicated by the shareholder. In such cases, subsection 1 shall apply. Disclosure obligations and related onus of proof in any event remain with the representative.
4. This article shall also apply in cases of share transfer by proxy.

Article 135 undecies (Appointed representative of a listed company)

1. Unless the Articles of Association decree otherwise, companies with listed shares designate a party to whom the shareholders may, for each shareholders' meeting and within the end of the second trading day prior to the date scheduled for the shareholders' meeting, including for callings subsequent to the first, a proxy with voting instructions on all or some of the proposals on the agenda. The proxy shall be valid only for proposals on which voting instructions are conferred.
2. Proxy is conferred by signing a proxy form, the content of which is governed by a Consob regulation. Conferring proxy shall be free of charge to the shareholder. The proxy and voting instructions may be cancelled within the time limit indicated in subsection 1.
3. Shares for which full or partial proxy is conferred are calculated for the purpose of determining due constitution of the shareholders' meeting. With regard to proposals for which no voting instructions are given, the shares are not considered in calculating the majority and the percentage of capital required for the resolutions to be carried.
4. The person appointed as representative shall have no interest, personal or on behalf of third parties, that he or she may have with respect to the resolution proposals on the agenda. The representative must also maintain confidentiality of the content of voting instructions received until scrutiny commences, without prejudice to the option of disclosing such information to his or her employees or collaborators, who shall also be subject to confidentiality obligations. The party appointed as representative may not be assigned proxies except in compliance with this article .
5. By regulation pursuant to subsection 2, Consob may establish cases in which a representative failing to meet the indicated terms of Article 135-decies may express a vote other than that indicated in the voting instructions.

Civil Code

Article 2393 (Directors' liability action)

The liability action against the directors is filed following resolution of the meeting, even if the company is in liquidation.

The resolution concerning the liability of the directors can be adopted at the time of the discussion of the financial statements, even if it is not included in the list of subjects to be dealt with, when it concerns events pertinent to the financial year to which the financial statements refer.

The liability action can be exercised within five years from the expiry of the director's term of office.

The resolution regarding the liability action involves the revocation from office of the directors against whom it is filed, provided it is taken with the favourable vote of at least one fifth of the share capital. In this case, the meeting takes care of replacing the directors.

The company can waive the exercise of the liability action and reach an agreement, provided the waiver and the agreement are approved with express resolution of the meeting, and provided there is not opposing vote of a minority of shareholders who represent at least one fifth of the share capital or, in the companies who use the risk capital market, at least on twentieth of the share capital, or the extent provided for in the Article of Association for the exercise of the directors' liability action in accordance with the first and second paragraphs of Article 2393-bis.
